An insight into how professional actors work, experience of performing in the open air and an understanding of the importance of a good warm up. I loved meeting my fellow community cast members and the professional cast.	1

I really enjoyed working with all of the actors, I really had fun getting to know all of the other community cast members in some of the breaks and I learnt something really valuable that I never really experienced prior. This was my first time doing the same show in front of an actual audience multiple times and I learnt that after the first show, your suddenly no longer nervous anymore! Which has really boosted my acting confidence.	1

No. I really enjoyed it.	1
Given the short rehearsal time our level of participation was realistic. If it were possible to rehearse longer we might be able to do more. That said, it would have been difficult for me to spare much more time and part of the appeal was that the time commitment was only one weekend.	1
I had a wonderful experience, for improvements I do not know enough to give my thoughts on the matter	1
No not really	1
